Maine G. O. P. Plurality Now Reaches 13,800

The largest vote in the history of Maine was cast at the state election yesterday. The total vote will approximate 150,000. These figures have not been approached since 1880, the year the Democratic and Greenback parties fused, when the total was 147,802. In the last presidential year and two years ago, the vote fell below 142,000.

The receipt today of the vote from the border and a few isolated towns increased the plurality of Carl E. Milliken, Republican, for governor, over Gov. Oakley C. Curtis, Democrat, from the indicated figures of 13,000 late last night to 13,800. Plurality for the other Republican candidates indicate solid delegations in both branches of Congress and will easily control both houses of the Legislature.

A Fine Meeting

Last Sunday afternoon a delegation from this part of the country went to Springfield to hear the Republican speakers who were to open the state campaign at that place on Monday.

The principal speaker was Chas. W. Fairbanks of Indiana, Republican candidate for vice-president, who arrived in Springfield Monday afternoon and spoke to a large crowd in the Convention Hall that evening at 7:30. He was warmly received and delivered a fine speech. That convention hall at Springfield is a mighty hard place to try to talk, in as it is almost impossible to be heard in the back part of the building.

In the afternoon meeting, which was held at the Landers theatre, a crowded house greeted Walter S. Dickey, candidate for United States Senator Judge Henry Lamm, candidate for governor, and practically all the other candidates for state offices. Judge Lamm delivered a fine speech, and made a few side remarks, all of which greatly pleased his hearers. Mr. Dickey made his usual hard business talk, which always pleases his hearers, and the other candidates were accorded warm welcomes as they declared themselves in the course of the meeting.

The State committee held a business session at the Colonial Hotel, and the committee of the 14th Congressional district held a meeting in the parlor of the Metropolitan hotel.

There was plenty of enthusiasm and every indication points to a Republican victory in Missouri this fall. Get hold and help push it along.

Among the parties from Forsyth who attended the meetings were J. W. Reese, L. L. Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Groom, J. R. Gideon, Judge J. G. Lewis, and F. F. Baily. We also met several from Branson and other parts of the county.

All that is left of the Progressive ticket in Missouri is the candidacy of Joseph P. Fonton for governor and it is not believed that that will survive long, for the reason that Mr. Fonton is at heart a Republican and infinitely prefers Republican to Democratic success in the coming campaign. H. T. Poindexter, the new chairman of the Progressive state committee, is openly for Hughes for President, as is practically every other Progressive in the state except former Judge Albert Norton, who persists in the role of Democratic Aid Society, in spite of the fact that only a few months ago he joined heartily in the denunciation of Wilson and Democracy at Chicago.

Indiana Republicans exhibit very slight grief over the defection of ex Gov. Hanly and his nomination at the head of the prohibition ticket. The normal prohibition vote in Indiana is about 18,000 and this year Hanly's personal following may carry it up to 25,000, but not all of the increase will come from the Republicans, because Hanly has many dry Democrats who admire him. The margin between united Republicanism and the Democracy in Indiana is about 40,000—so the mathematics of the situation seems to justify the lack of gloom over Hanly's departure.

Wilson, we are told every few moments, "kept us out of the war." However that may be, thousands of our young men are being torn from home and profitable jobs, subjected to all sorts of needless privations through somebody's inefficiency and shortsightedness, and for some purpose are being sent to the Mexican border, while the families they sustain when at home are suffering for want of them and their support. This summons of the militia to the number of over 125,000, is not a summer picnic. It may be for Wilson, but not for the boys and their impoverished home folks.

Now that Mr. Hughes, the Republican presidential candidate, has visited Missouri in the midst of a gracious demonstration of patriotic enthusiasm, the Republicans are well able to understand why the Democrats insist that his campaign is a woeful failure. There is plenty of occasion in the Hughes tour for Democratic disappointment.

It is a Democratic and not a Republican charge that Col Fred D. Gardner, who is now trying to conceal his staff connection with the Major administration by having himself referred to as Hon. Fred D. Gardner, spent over $150,000 in the pre-primary election which resulted in his nomination for governor.

The European war broke out in 1914—and the reason we had no financial panic in this country was because the Federal Reserve Banking system, which went into operation the following November! This is the kind of argument with which Democratic Congressmen are filling up the Congressional Record these sultry summer days.

Our farmers are sowing quite a lot of rye for fall pasturage and some few are putting in other crops to replace the corn crop.

E. A. Drum is busy building a large barn 20x96 feet, to shelter his stock in the winter time, and when he gets that done will build other buildings for farm machinery and also a large chicken house to care for the poultry.

Miss Berina Ray returned from Forsyth Sunday where she attended the Teachers meeting, and reported a good meeting at Forsyth returning home Saturday evening, but just what he learned we have not found out only that he had a good time, and why should he not, with so many school marms bunched in one place?

GARBER

A good rain last week ended the long drouth that has done a lot of damage, but now that it is over, the fall pasture is coming out fine, and the stock will have good feeding until winter sets in. Congress also comes to an end about the same time and the people will have a chance to look around to see where they can raise the cost of only a little $2,000,000,000. And between Congress and the drouth we have about all we can handle for the next few years. But the railroads are going to ask that they be re-imposed for the extra expense they will be put up against the first of the year. So that for the next few years we must hope for seasonable rains to swell the crop production, set out more fruit plants, raise better hogs and more beef stuff to sell to the people that have the money to buy such luxuries.

Our farmers are sowing quite a lot of rye for fall pasturage and some few are putting in other crops to replace the corn crop.

The Republicans of Missouri are this year in winning spirit and have winning numbers, but they must always keep in mind the fact that they cannot win without getting to the polls. The best agency to a full vote is a complete and efficient organization, which is only possible through general and patriotic co-operation. Missouri's place in the Republican column can be made permanent this year if every believer in the cause will do his duty.

WHAT ONE BIG MAN THINKS OF ANOTHER

President W. H. P. Faunce, of Brown University, is a pretty live wire who keeps abreast of the times, has keen powers of observation, and knows a good man when he sees him. Here is what he has to say about the Republican Candidate for the Presidency:

"I have known Justice Hughes intimately since we were students together at Brown and have seen him a thousand times at work and at play. No man of our generation has a finer combination of character and intellect. Absolutely fearless, unselfish, loyal to American ideals, he is worthy of a nation's trust.

"All his friends know that behind the dignity of bearing is a rich fund of humor and good fellowship. Whether he is climbing a mountain, reading novels, playing with his children, resisting a political lobby or delivering the opinion of the Supreme Court, he is ever the same rugged, democratic, firm-minded American. His varied experience has given him wide horizon and sympathy with every aspect of American life.

"He possesses two qualities rarely found together—the judicial temper and the capacity for swift and resolute action. Under his administration the fog which now besets many public questions would be cleared away.

"His penetrating mind goes to the heart of any subject he selects and strips off the irrelevant at once. Such a mind is peculiarly needed amid the intricate problems that now confront America.

"We need more than good intentions. We need clear vision, sound judgment, strong will, unhesitating decision. In short, we need Charles E. Hughes."

MR. HUGHES HAS EXPLODED THE "KEPT-US-OUT-OF-WAR" ARGUMENT.

Mr. Hughes' attack upon the "kept-us-out-of-war" argument has aroused a story of enthusiasm.

"Kept us out of war?" he demands. "Why, there were nineteen men—good American soldiers, shot down at Vera Cruz, and many Mexicans were killed by our men. That was war. Moreover, it was a very ignoble war. I have heard three explanations of the Vera Cruz move.

"First, it was explained that it was made in order to compel somebody to salute the flag—somebody who had insulted us. But the flag was not saluted and has not been to this day. Then it was said that the salute was not what we sought, but to prevent the landing of a boatload of ammunition intended for Huerta. The ammunition, landed, however, and it has been shown that it reached Huerta in due season without interference on our part.

"When that reason was shown to be untenable, a third one—and possibly the real one—finally was advanced. It was said that our seizure of Vera Cruz was a move to compel the retirement of Huerta. It seems possible that this is true, although we had promised the Mexicans that we would not interfere in their affairs and told them more than once that we wanted them to handle their own affairs.

"That is why the Mexicans could not understand us and that is why they show little faith in our promises."

WE WANT THE AMERICAN FLAG UNSULLIED.

"Now, my friends, we want not only American efficiency in business, in efficiency in the organization of business, in the protection of the factors of human industry and commerce, we want the American flag unsullied and the American name honored throughout the world."

—From Mr. Hughes' speech at Chicago.
